

Fresh Finds

Adorn your walls with these exquisitely framed 19th-century facing bronze doré Roman Emperor portrait-profile busts. $19,500 for pair. William R. Eubanks Interior Design, Inc.: 561.805.9335.

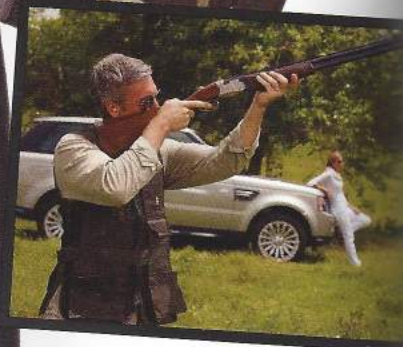

Stay three consecutive nights in the lap of midtown luxury at The Chatwal Hotel and receive a fourth night free (includes daily breakfast for two). Mention code XRZ when reserving: 888.625.5143.

The custom-made Douglas jacket in chocolate and black wool with leather trim and tortoise-shell buttons is impeccably masterful. $1,245. Katherine Hooker London: At katherinehooker.com.

New tech meets old school with these bespoke camo iPad and iPhone cases made in collaboration between DODOcase + Ball and Buck. $98. Available at Ball and Buck: 144B Newbury St., Boston, or ballandbuck.com.

Take a trip—and advantage of Casa de Campo's Sporting Clays Shooting Center, set on more than 245 acres with over 200 stations for trap, skeet, and sporting clays: 800.877.3643 or casadecampo.com.do.

For the first—to the twelfth—day of Christmas: Partridge note cards with silver engraving on moss paper with white hand-painted border from Pickett's Press. $45 for set of 10 (envelopes included). Pickett's Press: 146 E. 74th St. or pickettspress.com.

Rolex introduces a handsome new addition to its already impressive fleet of timepieces: the 40-mm. Oyster Perpetual GMT-Master II in stainless steel with rotatable black and blue ceramic bezel. $8,950. Rolex: Visit rolex.com.

